Order Denying Export Privileges

On March 3, 2020, in the U.S. District Court for the District of Idaho, Khaldoun Hejazi (“Hejazi”) was convicted of violating Section 38 of the Arms Export Control Act (22 U.S.C 2778) (“AECA”). Specifically, Hejazi was convicted of knowingly and willfully conspiring to export, and causing to be exported, firearms from the United States, which were designated as defense articles on the United States Munitions List, without having first obtained the required licenses or written approval from the U.S. Department of State. As a result of his conviction, the Court sentenced Hejazi to (1) 30 months in prison, (2) three years of supervised released, (3) a $30,000 criminal fine, and (4) a $100 court assessment.

Pursuant to Section 1760(e) of the Export Control Reform Act (“ECRA”), the export privileges of any person who has been convicted of certain offenses, including, but not limited to, Section 38 of the AECA, may be denied for a period of up to ten (10) years from the date of his/her conviction. See 50 U.S.C. 4819(e). In addition, any Bureau of Industry and Security (“BIS”) licenses or other authorizations issued under ECRA, in which the person had an interest at the time of the conviction, may be revoked. Id.

BIS received notice of Hejazi’s conviction for violating Section 38 of the AECA. BIS provided notice and opportunity for Hejazi to make a written submission to BIS, as provided in Section 766.25 of the Export Administration Regulations (“EAR” or the “Regulations”). 15 CFR 766.25.¹ While Hejazi contacted BIS indicating that he may submit a response, to date, BIS has not received a written submission from Hejazi.

Based upon my review of the record and consultations with BIS’s Office of Exporter Services, including its Director, and the facts available to BIS, I have decided to deny Hejazi’s export privileges under the Regulations for a period of five years from the date of Hejazi’s conviction. The Office of Exporter Services has also decided to revoke any BIS-issued licenses in which Hejazi had an interest at the time of his conviction.²
